Forebearance is one of the noblest of virtues. It is so natural to retaliate, to say the spiteful thing, to do the unkind act, that it is often said or done without thought of the consequences. And man's inhumanity to man makes countless millions mourn. Forebearance is not cowardice. The coward awaits only the opportunity to strike when he can save himself; the forbearing man restrains himself because it is right. And he does it with no other hope of reward save that that comes of an approving conscience. And after all, that is the only reward that is worth while. The plaudits of the multitude may please for the moment and feed one's vanity. But after all has past—as pass it must—the approving conscience is the surest reward, the one that must if any endure!

A special election has been set for October 1st in the Devine Commissioner's Precinct to determine whether the district shall issue $40,000 in bonds for road improvement. From reports from the district we are doubtful of the proposition carrying. Some are afraid that the entire amount will be spent on a strip of road that will benefit only a few; perhaps others are equally as fearful that the amount might be scattered over the entire district and so frittered away as to do no part of the roads any good. Either one is apt to be sufficient to defeat the proposition, and there is little use in attempting road improvements on a large scale until a majority of citizens are agreed as to where and how best to spend the funds. We hope that these difficulties may be solved by the people of the district and that the result will be a useful lesson to the rest of the country in the important matter of permanent road making.

Says the Hondo Anvil Herald, half apologetically: "Our advertisers are making such a demand upon our space as to leave little room or time for editorial dope." Then, by all means, let the advertisers have your editorial page. The editor may have something in his system that he wants to work out, but if the advertisers occupy the space it would require to do this and offer their customers some exceptionally good bargains, the customers will be the better off. The ideas of the editor may be good, but they will keep, and the bargains can be depended on to do this. Nothing is so interesting to the average reader as an announcement that he can buy a suit of clothes or a plow or a watch or a sack of coffee at a greatly reduced price. Therefore, the editorial dope can afford to wait. Don't regret the space you give to advertisers so long as they have something more important to say than an editorial. —San Antonio Express. Thank you. We feel better after that and are quite certain that it is the proper point of view.

The Editor and You.

Did you ever stop to consider the difference between the treatment accorded you by the editor and that which you accord him?

If he should knock your business through the columns of the paper, or say anything uncomplimentary about you personally you would nurse a grudge against him to you grave, and as the years rolled by it would grow and grow in size until you would find it as hard to hold as a baby elephant soaked in grease.

Now is such the case with the editor? He hears that you have ridiculed and run down his paper; that you have told people on the streets that it should not come into your home, and then when you come along and tell him that your daughter has graduated, he praises her to the sky, says that she is the pride of the community, the smartest thing on earth and that her honored parents have just cause to be proud of her.

You can mark his paper refused, stick it back in the post office and boast of the fact to all your friends, humiliating him as much as you possibly can, but if your son gets into trouble, rather than hurt your feelings he will suppress everything connected with the unfortunate case, at the risk of being called a numskull who can never get hold of the news.

He hears of your denunciation, feels the sting of it all, and sometimes suffers financial loss as a consequence, but never uses the columns of his paper to even up. On the other hand, if you have anything to boost he will boost it for you; if honor comes to you or yours he takes local pride in heralding it abroad, and if death steals into the home, he will go to the bottom of his heart for tender expressions of love for the departed one and condolence for those who are left to mourn.

You might sometimes think of those things while endeavoring by word and deed to belittle the editor and his usefulness in the community. You might put a brighter polish on your Christianity by following his example. —Del Rio Herald.

The Hondo public school, as well as the most of the schools of the country, will open next Monday for the 1912-1913 term. The State goes to enormous expense to place the rudiments of an education within the reach of every child within its borders. In this effort it has practically succeeded. And the child of normal physical and mental qualities who grows up without the benefit of this education has only his parents or guardian to blame. Don't let your child lay this charge to you in after years. Give him the opportunity to grasp all of the training the state has provided for him. He will need it when he faces the battles of life. Put your children in school at the opening day; keep them there every day and co-operate with their teachers in the effort to turn to the best account these golden school days—days that will be all too soon.

BLESSED is he who is equal to his opportunities for his opportunity will find him

No. 1679.
Citation by Publication.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT, Mattie Calk vs. J. C. Calk, JUDICIAL DIST. OF TEXAS, THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Medina County—GREETING:
You Are Hereby Commanded, that by making Publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the County of Medina, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 38th judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 38th judicial district, for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon J. C. Calk, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be held in the County of Medina at the court house thereof, in Hondo, Texas, on the 8th Monday after the 1st Monday in September, 1912, the same being the 28th day of October, 1912, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court on the 2nd day of March, A. D. 1912, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1679, wherein Mattie Calk is plaintiff and said J. C. Calk is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit: That she is a bonafide resident of the State of Texas and has resided in Medina County for at least six months next preceding the filing of this suit, and defendant's residence is unknown. That plaintiff and defendant were legally married on or about the 14th day of March, A. D. 1910, in Devine, Medina County, Texas, and that said marriage relations still exist. That they continued to live together as husband and wife until on or about the 17th day of March, 1910. That plaintiff during the time she lived and cohabited with defendant conducted herself with propriety and at all times treated her husband, the defendant, with kindness and forbearance, but that defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vow and his obligation to treat plaintiff with kindness and attention, within one day after his marriage to plaintiff commenced a course of unkind, harsh and tyrannical conduct toward her which continued until he left and separated from plaintiff on or about March 17, 1910. That on divers occasions while plaintiff lived with defendant he was guilty of excesses, cruel treatment and outrages toward her of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable. That on or about the 17th day of March, 1910, at their home in Devine, Texas, defendant cursed and abused plaintiff, and, among other things, called her a damned old liar, and drew a gun on her and told her that if she did not pay his debts he would kill her. That the defendant is a man of violent passions and ungovernable temper and that on several occasions during the time plaintiff lived with him defendant addressed to her the most opprobrious epithets and threats of personal violence and repeatedly threatened to take her life. Plaintiff alleges that defendant's actions and conduct toward her are of such a nature as to render their future living together as husband and wife insupportable.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays the Court that defendant be cited, by publication, to appear and answer herein and for judgment dissolving said marriage relations, for costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and equity, that she may be justly entitled to.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Hondo, Texas, this, the 4th day of September, A. D. 1912. Issued same day.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

who is authorized to collect and receipt for money due this paper and to whom items intended for this page should be submitted.—Editor.

The schools of District No. 1, Castroville, opened last Monday, Sept. 2nd for the 1912-13 term.

Sheriff J. F. Bader of Hondo was a Castroville business visitor last Monday.

Judge Hoog and Charles Moeller of Lacoste left Tuesday morning for the mountains after the finny tribe. They returned Thursday and the judge informed the writer that they were very successful.

Messrs. Henry, Louis and August Tschirhart and A. H. Tondre, another party, just went a short distance up the river also on Tuesday and landed much plenty fish. Among the lot was a forty-four pounder.

Hons. H. E. Haass and Ed. de Montel of Hondo were here Thursday on legal business.

A. H. Weynand and son, Joe, left Friday morning on a recreation trip to the mountains.

Ernest Thorp, editor of The Medina Valley Herald of Lacoste, was in town Friday. The gentleman informed us that he would get the first issue out Thursday.

A Negro was shot and instantly killed by his wife at the Stansel camp above town Friday night. From information gathered, we learn that the man had unmercifully beaten her with a club. She finally tore away from him and ran into a tent, warning him not to follow her. In his rage he did not heed the warning, and as he stepped inside she fired the fatal shot which pierced his heart. She then skipped out but was captured Saturday afternoon near town and placed in jail.

The Men Who Succeed

as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at W. H. Windrow's.

The germ of suspicion is often fatal to the microbe of love.

What we Never Forget

according to science, are the things associated with our early home life, such as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises. Forty years of cures prove its merit. Unrivaled for piles, corns or cold-sores. Only 25 cents at W. H. Windrow's.

He who hesitates is lost—especially when he is found out.

Bad breath, bitter taste, dizziness and a general "no account" feeling is a sure sign of a torpid liver. HERBINE is the medicine needed. It makes the liver active, vitalizes the blood, regulates the bowels and restores a fine feeling of energy and cheerfulness. Price 50c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

by Constable L. W. Burell. The Negro was buried in the county cemetery Saturday.

Emil Tschirhart of San Antonio was mingling with his many relatives and friends here Saturday.

Several from here attended the Farmers' Union picnic and barbecue at Riomedina, and then a goodly number of our young folks went up in the evening and attended the dance given at the Mayflower hall.

A pleasant reception was tendered Rev. Father Heckmann at the St. Louis hall by the members of his congregation Sunday afternoon. Speeches and singing by the school children were rendered and beer, lemonade, ice cream, cake and sandwiches were served.

A game of ball was pulled off in the evening between Castroville and Lacoste teams which ended to the tune of 6 to 12 in favor of Castroville.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Scherrer of Sauz, Saturday, Aug. 31 and was christened at St. Louis church Thursday afternoon with Wm. Scherrer and Mrs. Emil Zinsmeyer as sponsors.

Who made a mistake? We note in our letter of Sept. 2nd there appears a local which reads thus: "A pleasant surprise was tendered at Wernette's opera house, the occasion being the young gentleman's twenty-first anniversary." Now did we fail to give the name, Robert Rihn, or was it the other fellow's mistake? (The proof-reader, which is us.—Ed.)

There will be no service at the Lutheran church next Sunday as Rev. W. Kralik will be absent. Sept. 9, 1912.

In Memoriam.

Little Lorine Breiten passed away Sept. 5, 1912.

Another little lamb has gone
To dwell with Him who gave;
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band,
And so he bent with loving smile
And clasped this darling's hand.

They had a little treasure once,
She was their joy and pride;
They loved little Lorine, ah! perhaps Too well,

For soon she slept and died.

All is dark within their dwelling,
Lonely are their hearts today,
For the little one they loved so dearly
Has forever passed away.

—HER AUNT, G. B.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gehart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by All Dealers.

One way to judge a man's following is by the length of his funeral procession.

Some men cut loose when they get tight.

HON. EARL B. MAYFIELD

Successful Candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

Meridian, Texas, August.—Hon. Earl B. Mayfield, successful candidate for Railroad Commissioner, who made his campaign on a platform of "more railroads and better service" and who has incessantly preached a gospel of "live and let live" brings to the Railroad Commission a spirit of progress, a disposition of fairness, a desire to co-operate and a restless energy much needed in the work of that department of government.

He is entering the Commission at the most trying time in its existence. Construction work is at a standstill and can hardly be stimulated by unreasonable bonuses; a pending car famine of mammoth proportions is upon us; our passenger service is in need of improvement and the people have cried out to the Commissioner through the State Democratic convention for relief. The services of Mr. Mayfield will be valuable to the Commission in modernizing its methods and adjusting its policies to Twentieth Century conditions.

Mr. Mayfield served six years in the State Senate and is at present a member of that body. His faithfulness, fidelity and ability have won for him leadership in the Senate and merited the promotion he has received from the people.

W. A. Smith, Bridgeton, Ind., had kidney trouble for years, and was so crippled with rheumatism he could not dress without help. He started using Foley Kidney Pills, and says: "I began to get better at once, and now all my trouble has left me and I do not feel that I ever had rheumatism. I rest well all night and tho' 59 years old, can now do the work of a man of 35 years. I would like to be the means of others getting benefit from Foley Kidney Pills." Refuse substitutes.—W. H. Windrow.

People who go to law seldom get back with as much as they started with.

 BREAK, break, break.
 On thy cold gray stones, O sea!
 And I would that my tongue could utter
 The thoughts that arise in me.
 O H, well for the fisherman's boy
 That he shows with his sister at play!
 Oh, well for the sailor lad
 That he sings in his boat on the bay!
 AND the stately ships go on
 To their haven under the hill;
 But oh, for the touch of a vanished hand
 And the sound of a voice that is still!
 BREAK, break, break
 At the foot of thy crags, O sea!
 But the tender grace of a day that is dead
 Will never come back to me.
 —Tennyson.

AFTER years and years of boosting and the spilling of buckets of printers' ink, the fact that Aransas Pass at last has deep water is evidenced by an ocean steamer taking a cargo of freight at that port this week.
 We are glad to record this fact, a fact that once seemed very remote. If the Panama Canal is a success Aransas Pass will soon become a port of vast importance.

ONE of the unique specimens of the special edition that we have ever seen is that of the Kerrville Mountain Sun which came to our desk this week. It is issued in magazine form, is filled with choice reading matter about Kerrville and the Kerrville country and contains very little advertising and none of that questionable kind that so often mars the special edition. Grinstead must be a millionaire to risk such a venture.

Wait not for extraordinary occasions. The present moment, and the mite you can contribute as it passes, are your all. For rightly viewed, what is the present moment but the index on the dial-plate, forever moving till it makes up your whole life?
 And what is the mite you now contribute but that exertion of your strength to meet the present demand, without which, in the longest life, nothing is accomplished? The whole of religion, then, is comprised in one simple direction: Do all you can from a pure motive now. Thus, small as your actions may appear to men, like the widow's mite, they will be great in the eye of Heaven; and though they attract not the admiration of the world, they will secure you eternal peace.—
 C. A. Bartol.

OH! yes, it is easy to roast things when they don't go to please you. It is easy to sharpen a pencil and pour verbal vitrol from its point until you have burned never healing blisters into the object of your enmity.
 But what is the use? You won't feel any the happier yourself, and the one who pats you on the back with a bully-boy-go-to-it boost is liable to be the first to desert you in the hour of need.
 And, then, suppose your efforts should be misdirected, should fall upon some poor devil who is doing his best with the lights he has before him? Is there Balm in Gilead to soothe your own seared conscience after a realization of such a deed? It is easy

The Fair.

Hondo's second annual Fair opened here Monday with a grand street parade. The parade formed at the Fair grounds and paraded the principal streets of the town, returning to the grounds and disbanding at 12 o'clock.

The parade was led by D. B. Martin, Marshal of the Day, followed by the band. After the band came a beautifully decorated float bearing the queen of the carnival, Miss Lorine de Montel, her maids of honor and other attendants, and another float bearing the pages and flower girls. The most original idea was an automobile decorated to represent a gasoline launch driven by Eugene Mofield. Then followed other vehicles, automobiles, live stock, etc., too numerous to mention.

At 3 o'clock the manager awarded the following prizes to the parade contestants:

Best decorated float: Gold medal awarded to W. T. DeCesta, who decorated the queen's float.

Best decorated vehicle: Miss Corine
 Ney, gold medal.

Best decorated automobile: Eugene
 Mofield, $5 medal.

Bicycle: Willie Crow, $1.

Prettiest girl: Miss Annie Callahan, season ticket and medal.

Finest stallion: D. B. Martin's General Hal, medal.

Best clown: W. M. Schmitt, $1.

Best colt: R. Ellebracht, red ribbon and medal, second prize.

Best draft horses: George Grimes,
 blue ribbon and medal.

For best year-old colt, blue ribbon,
 Geo. H. Bende Jr.

Best negro clown (imitation): Frank Stiegler, $1.

Best horse girl: Second prize, Miss Ida Frerichs, silver medal.

Best cowboy: Willie Frerichs, second prize, red ribbon and medal.

Best colt, E. L. Bridges, first prize,
 blue ribbon and medal.

Best cow boy: Wesley Mofield, second prize, red ribbon and medal.

Best cow girl: Lizzie Schuehle, medal and blue ribbon.

Automobile traveling farthest to the fair: Dr. E. P. Cayo, Beeville, medal.

At 4 o'clock Hondo and Sabinal played a game of base ball. Score 6 to 3 in favor of Sabinal. The visiting team won the $25 loving cup put up by the management.

There was a large attendance at the fair grounds and the day closed with a grand dance at the Auditorium.

TUESDAY.

Tuesday's entertainment began with a band concert at the depot at 10:12.
 The usual attractions were on at the fair grounds from 2 to 11:30 o'clock P.
 M.

At 3:30 o'clock a baseball game was played between Hondo and D'Hanis.
 Hondo won the $25 silver loving cup by a score of 8 to 2.

The main feature of Tuesday, however, was the crowning of the Queen of the Carnival at the Auditorium Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock. When the Queen, Miss Lorine de Montel, attended by her escort, Milton Schmitt;
 her Maids of Honor, Misses Mamie Rothe, Nita Bradley, Marguerite
 Patterson, Marie Filleman, Verna Mae Hudspeth and Johanna Rothe; flower girls, Misses Octavia Davis, Lorine Heath, Dorothy Metzger, Ethel Hutz-ler, Evelyn Wilson and Ruth Rothe;
 flag boys, Wallace Heath, Jules Schmitt, Elmer Leinweber, Frank Sayers, Randolph Metzger, and Willie Muennink;
 and court jesters, Louis Brucks Jr., and William Schmitt Jr. entered the brilliantly lighted hall and marched up to and mounted the gorgeous throne that had been constructed upon the stage the scene made was a most beautiful and impressive one. The Queen was first presented with a handsome gold locket and chain by the fair management after which she was crowned.

After the coronation ceremony the evening closed with a grand ball.

WEDNESDAY.

Wednesday was Castroville day.
 The Castroville Band arrived early and was accompanied by a large contingent of visitors from that vicinity. The Band gave a concert at the depot at 10:12 and during the afternoon discor-sed sweet music at the grounds. The Castroville Band makes a very creditable showing. It has some of the youngest members who ever played in the band.

In the second ball game between D'- Hanis and Hondo the home team again took the loving cup.

A vaudeville performance at the grand stand in the evening created considerable laughter. Rudolph and Adolph are producing considerable amusement with their funny stunts.

The dance Wednesday evening was again largely attended.

THURSDAY.

Thursday was probably the record day in point of attendance, as it was designated as Hondo Day and most of the business places closed up that managers and employees might visit the fair.

The Biry Military Band was in attendance and supplemented the work of the regular band and covered itself with glory in its rendition of sweet music.

The introducing of the Queen of the Carnival was another pretty feature of the evening.

The best ball game of the series was played between Hondo and the Brackett team in which the cup was won by Brackett with a score of 3 to 2.

In the slow automobile race, C. W.
 Roberts won with his Hudson, making the five circuits of the track in 13 minutes and 25 seconds with no errors.
 There were nine entries in this contest.

Penny scrambles for the children, catching the greasy pig, fancy skating and numerous other stunts kept the crowd amused throughout the evening.

We go to press too early to give an account of Friday's program.

Today will probably be the biggest event of the fair as it is the last day.
 The concluding feature of the fair will be the dance which closes at midnight tonight.

H. H. Balzen's Barn Burns.

H. H. Balzen had the misfortune to lose his barn and all of its contents by fire about two o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr Balzen says the barn was set on fire on the inside where there was a lot of loose shucks and hay.

The upper story of the barn contained about 22,000 pounds of cotton seed and the weight of these caused the building to collapse as soon as the frame work of the building had burned a little and probably saved the rest of his buildings by keeping the flames from rising so high.

Besides the cotton seed and some feed stuff, Mr. Balzen lost his hack, two buggies, three saddles, all of his harness, plows, cultivators, planters, etc. He does know the extent of his loss in money value but it was heavy and he had no insurance. Two mules penned in a lot near the barn came near being burned before they could be gotten out of danger.

Mr. Balzen has the sympathy of all who know him in this heavy loss.

Cheap Paint

The cheapest paint is the one that goes farthest and wears best; there is most in a gallon of it.

What is a quart of milk worth? Depends on the milk.

So of paint; depends on the paint.

Devoe is worth the top price, whatever it is. Poor paint is worth nothing at all; you've got to pay your painter $3 or $4 a gallon for putting it on; and it isn't worth it.

Devoe goes twice as far and wears twice or three times or four times as long.

The cheap paint is Devoe at the top of the market.

DEVOE

 the Institute's most successful and beneficial sessions is expected. The Institute will be addressed by several prominent educators, among whom are:
 Prof. Evans, President of the Southwest Texas State Normal; Hon. F. M.

 Thomas Fletcher of the State University and Judge Kercheville of Devine.

 for all these we extend our heartfelt gratitude and loving thanks.

Some miscreant pried out a brick next to the corner stone of the new Catholic church Tuesday night and rifled the box placed therein at the recent corner stone laying in the hope that he would find money contained therein. Finding nothing of value to him, he replaced the box and its contents, stuck the brick back in its place and left so little sign of his crime that it was well up in the day before workmen on the building discovered the robbery. There is no clue to the guilty party.

THEN HE FLEW.

A gentleman who was anxious to catch a certain train hailed a hansom, gave instructions as to the station to be driven to, and jumped in, but the horse made terribly slow progress and every second made the fare think that he would miss his train.

At length he addressed Jehu:

"Look here, cabman," he said, "can you make your horse go faster? I wish to catch the 3:45 train."

The cabman winked knowingly and replied:

"Yes, sir; he can go faster. But like this, sir. My horse is an old horse, and the best way to make him go faster is for you to bet me half a crown he won't catch the 3:45. That'll put him on his mettle directly he hears it and he'll fly like the wind."

The cabman won the half crown—London Tit-Bits.

THE WAY.

Wred—I've just lost a rich aunt.
Med—Did she die suddenly?
Wred—No, she isn't dead at all, but our niece jilted me.

Check!

A rain check AS a rain check is utterly in vain. Whatever it may check, by heck, it doesn't check the rain!

His Experiences.

"There is too much of a marine flavor about that sporting bunch you introduced me to, to suit me."

"What do you mean?"

"The automobile of the motorists in the party turned turtle, the one who tried to row us on the lake kept catching crabs, the girls in the party were perfect clams, and the one who undertook to find our lost road got us in a pretty kettle of fish."

Humoring Her.

Edy—Now, caddy, I wish you to be extremely careful. When you come to a crossing you must wait until the policeman tells you to go on; and if the streets are slippery you must drive very slowly.

Gabby—All right, mum; I'll be very careful, mum. And in case of a back-slash, mum, which hospital would you like to be took to?—Tit-Bits.

No Fish Story.

"You'll be a man like one of us some day," said the patronizing sportsman who had been throwing his line in the same stream.

"Yes, sir," he answered, "I s'pose I will some day, but I believe I'd rather stay small and catch a few fish!"—Tit-Bits.

A Suspicion.

"I declare," said Mrs. Cumrox, after making a round of calls, "all these fellows have umpired baseball games."

"Impolite?"

"No. Polite, but positive. They seem to have gotten into the habit of umpiring everybody is out."

THE USUAL WAY.

Mrs. Newpop—Mr. Choppem, won't you weigh my little baby for me?
Mr. Choppem—Yes'm. Bones and all, I s'pose.

Frightful.

The sweet maid's frightened by such little things—
The easy chair that takes her in its arms;
And when the light of day the morning brings,
Her nickel clock just fills her with alarms.

Nothing to Pray For.

Bessie—Do you say your prayers every night?
Jessie—I did; but I have got a new dress and a doll baby coach and everything I want just now.

Safety.

Nervous Pary—Don't know if that gun is loaded or unloaded, young man. But if it's loaded please hold the spout out of the window.—London Opinion.

Styles For Girls

THE first is a pretty simple dress for a girl of sixteen years; it is made in old rose cashmere, with collar, waist-band and cuffs of silk of the same color; the right front is cut in a point that wraps over the left, it is fastened by hooks and eyes and ornamented with silk-covered buttons and loops. The vest and undersleeves are of ivory piece lace.

Materials required: 4 yards 46 inches wide, 1/2 yard silk 22 inches wide, 1 yard lace 18 inches wide.

A dress for a tiny girl of four years is shown next; it is in spotted Jap silk.

The top of bodice is finely tucked, the ends of the tucks being covered by lace insertion that gives the effect of a round yoke; the neck is also finished with insertion.

The skirt is gathered below the waist-line, and the gathers are covered by an insertion-trimmed band; wider insertion finishes the foot.

Materials required: 3 yards 36 inches wide, about 4 yards insertion.

The third is a simple dress of printed delaine for girl of eight to ten years; the Magyar bodice is short-waisted at sides and is cut with a deep point both front and back, the points, square-cut neck and sleeves are trimmed with insertion.

The skirt is gathered and laid under the edge of the bodice and is turned up at the foot with a deep hem.

Materials required: 3 1/2 yards 28 inches wide.

Next is for a girl of the same age; it is carried out in plaid washing silk, made in pinafore style with strappings of plain silk. The front is laid in a wide box-pleat the entire length. The under-slip is in muslin all-over embroidery, cut Magyar. Silk-covered buttons are sewn in the points of the straps and waistband.

Materials required: 4 1/2 yards silk 22 inches wide, 1/2 yard plain silk, 1 yard embroidery 18 inches wide for slip.

In the last we have a simple white serge dress for a girl of ten to twelve years. The skirt has a panel back and front laid on in wide wrapped seams; folds of crosswise silk stand out each side of lower part of panels.

The bodice is tucked in a line to give the effect of a continuation of the panel, and folds of the striped silk stand out over the shoulders, half-way down both front and back; a small piece of silk is let in at the front; it is arranged for the stripes to form points in center.

Hat of dark blue straw, trimmed with ribbon.

Materials required for the dress: 3 1/2 yards 46 inches wide, 1/2 yard striped silk.

FASHION IN WRITING PAPER

Long, Narrow Envelope in Which Folded Square Sheet Fits is the Mode at Present.

Practically all fashionable writing-paper is accompanied by long and narrow envelopes in which the folded square sheet fits. Styles in dies change with other fashions that govern correct writing-paper. The most popular monogram die today is circular in form, with the circle usually indicated by the shape of the letters.

Another popular die is diamond-shaped, and is placed in the middle of a page at the top. Drop letters, too, especially in script type, retain their popularity, but are now made long, very narrow, and more decorative, with linked and interlaced letters. Indeed, interlaced letters are the rule in new dies, and the latest designs look like Egyptian hieroglyphics rather than any letters known to this continent and century.—Harper's Bazar.

BIBS ARE PRETTILY SHAPED

Accepted Form Has Been Proved to Be Capable of Many Dainty Transformations.

Fashion does not admit of much latitude in the form of a bib, but it is the fancy now to vary the accepted form as much as possible, making triangular and pointed-shaped ends, and as new an outline as possible. One triangular style is prettily finished with three rows of narrow lace. The fine top piece is sewed to its thick lining beneath the second row of lace. Even rubber bibs have become attractive, and are thin and soft to the touch, with a finish on the outer side like a fine weave of figured nainsook. It is customary to baste these thin rubber bibs beneath fancy ones of thin material, although it is an open question whether rubber is a good thing to lay over a baby's chest.—Harper's Bazar.

Shoes of Two Colors.

Shoes made of two colors are very fashionable both for evening and afternoon wear in Paris. The fronts and heels are made of one color, usually black patent leather or white kid. The vamp of the shoe which has straps like a sandal, matches the gown in color and is usually of velvet. Shoes of this sort, with the vamp of purple velvet and purple stockings, are worn with black costumes.

Higher Boots.

Buttoned boots for walking are higher this year than they ever were before, and they will probably be known by their button length, as are the long, short and medium gloves. These extra high shoes go more than half way up to the knee.

PRETTY BLOUSE.

This blouse, which is cut Magyar, is in pale mauve foulard dotted with a darker shade; the collar and cuffs are of Paisley patterned foulard of the same shade of mauve.

The vest and collar-band are of tucked white nixon with frill of same down the front.

Materials required: 1 1/2 yards 42 inches wide, 1/2 yard Paisley pattern 34 inches wide, 1/2 yard nixon 40 inches wide.

To Dress the Hair.

Among the most artistic coiffures is one in which the hair is draped in an undulating fashion, so as to cover the ears. With this goes the wide silver fillet, which encircles the head, while at the back two or three soft curls droop carelessly from the band of silver. A fashion that finds favor with some women is the wearing of a head band of colored ribbon, embroidered with beads of all shades. Tiny wreaths of pink roses with pearl centers are favored by the young girl, and a plain ribbon band tied in a small bow at the side is very attractive and youthful.

The College Girl's Blanket.

Let the college girl who is to furnish her own blanket and desires the college monogram or letters on it, choose a blanket whose border is one of the college colors and then cut from broadcloth letters of the other color and applique them on the border. Or choose an all-white blanket and apply the letters in the college colors in either linen or silk.

Sapphire Chains.

Long, flat chains of sapphires are likely to be much in vogue during the autumn to harmonize with some of the tones of blue that will be used for dinner gowns expressed in velvet and soft satin.

Lacoste Laconics.

In Loving Remembrance of Little Esta Breiten.

The evening shadows linger longer here,
The winter days feel so much of the year,
And even summer winds are chill and drear,
Since she went home.

Since she went home,
How still the empty rooms her presence blessed.

Untouched the pillows that her dear little head pressed.

Our lonely hearts have no where to rest,

Since she went home.

Since she went home,
The long, long days have crept away like years.

The sunlight has been dimmed with doubts and fears.

And the dark nights have rained in lonely tears,

Since she went home.

—AN AUNT, G. B.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to anyone in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by All Dealers.

Two can live almost as expensively as one.

Despondency

Is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are taken. For sale by All Dealers.

Many Driven From Home.

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping-cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by W. H. Windrow.

It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by All Dealers.

Keep your mouth shut; you can never tell when the microbes are swarming.

For the Bowels

A Cure for Chronic Constipation, Torpid Liver and Irregular Bowel Movements.

Constipation is the most common disorder of the bowels. It affects both sexes and all ages but is more prevalent among women because their duties in the household require less physical exercise than the occupations of men; therefore women suffer most from its baneful effect.

A constipated person is an easy victim when exposed to any serious disease—Pneumonia, Typhoid Fever, Malaria, Rheumatism, Small Pox, Yellow Fever and Bright's Disease gather their annual harvest of death among those who are habitually constipated. Even though they escape these diseases, such persons are always ailing more or less. They have headaches, bad digestion, dizziness, vertigo (blind staggers), sallow complexion, flatulence, loss of strength, and no energy at all. Herbine has a most admirable effect in the bowels: it is cooling, purifying and regulating. It puts a prompt check on biliousness, wind in the bowels, nervousness, heartburn, bad breath, low spirits, drowsiness in the daytime and nervous wakefulness at night.

Price 50c per Bottle.

BY SLEEPY.

Well! Here I'm coming once again, sleepy as usual but Uncle Sam and the heat aroused me out of my nap, so I'll write what little news I know. I agree with Uncle Sam; it show am too hot these days to take a long nap.

Dunlay is getting to be quite an important place; at last, the S. P. Railroad Co. ran an excursion train from the East out to Dunlay, last Sunday. Quite a number of gay people alighted from the excursion train and ran to get a seat on the "Mico Special" passenger cars, which were ready waiting to take the passengers up to Mico to let them enjoy a day at the Dam Site. They left Dunlay at 10:30 o'clock a. m. returning at 4:00 p. m. every body being well pleased with their pleasure trip and day's enjoyment. Those from there who visited the Dam Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lebold and daughters, Misses Nora and Clara. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weiss and children, who were the guests of Lebold's. Mrs. Weiss's parents, and Messrs. Wm. H. Schmidt, J. G. Bohlen, R. B. Breiten, and Alfred Schulte. They all report a pleasant time.

A baby boy cheers the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burger since Wednesday morning, September 4th. The proud and happy father is wearing 2x4 smile.

Emil Boehle of Quihi took the train there for Weimer, Texas Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Horn of Quihi were in town shopping Saturday.

For several weeks W. H. Schmidt, a popular gentleman of this place, has been seen sporting a new buggy. Did you see him, girls? Look out, there's something doing.

George L. Boehle of Quihi was seen on our streets Sunday.

Jos. A. Riff and son, Eddie, of Bader Settlement were here on business Monday.

Fred Weiss and family, Mrs. Lebold and daughter, Miss Clara, and John Lebold left on a fishing trip to the Medina Tuesday.

Miss Clara Lebold and Ed. J. Haby attended the dance at Vandenberg Saturday night.

Andrew Martin made his usual trip to Sturm Hill Sunday.

C. H. Rohlf of Quihi was here Monday evening.

P. A. Huegele of Devine passed by here Sunday en route to Bader settlement.

Rev. L. Hoefer and family arrived here Tuesday. Rev. Hoefer will reside at Quihi where he has accepted the pastorate of the Lutheran church.

Now, Uncle Sam, I hope you won't quit writing. It may be cooler soon so that I can take another nap. Therefore, I hope that you will keep on writing the Dunlay News.
